Environmental Health Perspectives presents Air, Water and You, an environmental health science workshop for formal and informal educators. This 7-hour workshop is a Criteria I certified workshop through the North Carolina Environmental Education Program. Participants can earn up to 10 hours of EE credit with a completion of a 3-hour homework. The workshop will be held August 2, 2011 at the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences in Research Triangle Park, NC. Participants will learn environmental health related activities that are geared towards middle and high school students. Participants will need to register for the workshop, as registration is limited to 25 participants.

For more information about the workshop and registration, contact Bono Sen at (919) 541-4692 or at senb@niehs.nih.gov
